

The customer will trim the bushes before the job can begin.

The customer will notify the residents to remove any items along the fence, and anything on top of the fence.

The painters will remove any mulch along the base of the fence.